PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONSChartered Financial Analyst®, CFA®

The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charter is a globally respected, graduate-level investment credential established in 1962 and awarded by the CFA Institute, the largest global association of investment professionals. To earn the CFA charter, an individual must:

1. passed three sequential, six-hour examinations;
2. had at least four years of qualified professional investment experience;
3. joined CFA Institute as a member; and
4. committed to abide by, and annually reaffirm, adherence to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct.

The CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, enforced through an active professional conduct program, requires its charter holders to place clients' interests ahead of their own, maintain independence and objectivity, act with integrity, maintain and improve professional competence, and disclose conflicts of interest and legal matters.

The CFA Program curriculum provides a comprehensive framework of knowledge for investment decision-making and is firmly grounded in the knowledge and skills used every day in the investment profession. The three levels of the CFA Program test proficiency with a wide range of fundamental and advanced investment topics, including ethical and professional standards, fixed income and equity analysis, alternative and derivative investments, economics, financial reporting standards, portfolio management, and wealth planning.

The CFA Program curriculum is updated every year by experts from around the world to ensure that candidates learn the most relevant and practical new tools, ideas, and investment and wealth management skills to reflect the dynamic and complex nature of the profession. To learn more about the CFA charter, visit www.cfainstitute.org.
